

Fireplace Mantle

A tall, ornate floor lamp with a dark wood finish. The lamp features a long, slender stem with multiple decorative sections, including carved fluted patterns, bulbous medallions with floral motifs, and flared, scalloped rings. The base is a wide, circular, slightly raised platform. The lamp is positioned on a dark wooden floor. In the background, a wooden door and a blue fabric item are visible.

A large, dark-framed glass door with a grid pattern is the central focus. The door is partially open, revealing a cluttered interior space. To the left of the door, a red object is hanging on the wall, and a black storage bin filled with various items is on the floor. To the right, a cardboard box and other miscellaneous items are visible. The word "SOLD" is overlaid in large white letters at the bottom left.
